Soaring over the OWLS' Nest

Twenty-one pilots competed in the Soaring event during four beautiful days at the end of February. Shifting wind currents made for an interesting competition.

Soaring Event Cancelled

At our last meeting, we were advised that an F3B Sailplane Event would take place at KennyWorld over the weekend of April 21st. That event was cancelled, but the organizer, Gordon Buckland, wanted to thank all the OWL volunteers who were ready to help out.

March 28th: The annual OWLS Fun Fly: A great way to renew friends, fly, eat and give a farewell to our snowy owls.

April 25th & 26th: Pompano Flyers soaring event (field closed).
