Lost & Found...

This cover was found in the grass behind the club house and appears to be a battery compartment cover. If you are missing one, I put it on the shelf just to the right as you enter the club house.

Sale of Tower Hobbies

As you may be aware, Tower Hobbies' parent company, Hobbico, declared bankruptcy in January 2018 and has initiated a sale process. We are excited to share with you that the RC brands and Tower Hobbies website that you have come to rely on over the years will continue. The Bankruptcy Court has approved the sale of Hobbico's RC business to Horizon Hobby, LLC. Horizon Hobby has been in business since 1985 and serves customers in the United States and around the World. Horizon Hobby also maintains a strong online presence and warmly welcomes Hobbico customers to its growing family. With this acquisition, Horizon Hobby looks to build upon Hobbico's great reputation for providing quality RC products to customers across the country. More information about Horizon Hobby can be found at <https://www.HorizonHobby.com>.

Here's one for Doc...

A rancher was out in the barn, pulling a calf out of a 1st calf heifer, he was just cleaning up, when he noticed the barn doors cracked open and his six year old son standing there watching him.

Dad thinks to himself, Birds and Bees' talk coming up, so he calls his son over. The little guy is standing there looking at the calf, then looking at the heifer. He looks back at the calf, then back at the heifer.

The Dad asks his son, "Do you have any questions?"

The little guy looks at the calf then the heifer again, then asks his Dad, "Just how fast was that calf running, when it hit that heifer?"

When You're Seventy.....Who Cares!

I went to Willard's last night and saw a BIG woman dancing on a table.

I said, "Good legs."

The girl giggled and said, "Do you really think so?"

I said, "Definitely! Most tables would have collapsed by now."

Cost me a slap across the face, but when you're seventy.....who cares?

Jack Daniels Fishing Story

I went fishing this morning, but after a short time I ran out of worms.

Then I saw a cottonmouth with a frog in its mouth.

Frogs are good bass bait.

Knowing the snake couldn't bite me with the frog in its mouth, I grabbed it right behind the head, took the frog, and put it in my bait bucket.

Now the dilemma was how to release the snake without getting bit. So, I grabbed my bottle of Jack Daniels and poured a little whiskey in its mouth. Its eyes rolled back, and it went limp.

I released the snake into the lake without incident and carried on fishing, using the frog.

Not long after, I felt a nudge on my foot. It was that damn snake ... with two more frogs.

Life is good.

THE OWLS NEST GALLERY

March's meeting was still cool but nice in the sun!
